FOREIGN BROADCAST INFORMATION SERVICE

Of Special Interest This Week

+ FBIS has received several special requests from the State Department. The Office of Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs has asked for an update of the 8 March Special Memorandum written by the FBIS Analysis Group on reaction to the U.S. Middle East Peace Plan. In addition, INR passed along a request from the Japanese Foreign Office for a collation of speeches and writings by Soviet Politburo member Yuriy Andropov. The Japanese request was originally made at the annual meeting between the Foreign Office and State representatives 25-29 October. The FBIS package has been forwarded through the DDI Foreign Liaison Office.

+ FBIS staff linguists are translating a 3-hour interview with members of the Guatemalan guerrilla group, the EGP ("Guerrilla Army of the Poor"). A team from the OMS/Center for Counterterrorism and Crisis Response conducted the interview in a Central American country as part of its research on the psychology behind guerrilla movements.

+ Information from Rio De Janeiro indicates that the Sao Paulo television network Bandeirantes has gone to 24-hour transmission of videocasts to a 25-station group in Brazil, utilizing the Intelsat satellites. This is believed to be the first use of satellite in South America to regularly deliver domestic videocasts to regional transmitters. FBIS
